Attention: Teacher Aides/Parent Helpers in Ballarat or Melbourne

Do you want to gain a nationally recognised qualification as a Teacher Aide?

Australian Catholic University is again conducting the Certificate III in Education Support, a course for those working as teacher aides or volunteering in schools.

Where and when: Thursdays at the St Patrick’s Campus, Fitzroy OR Fridays at the Aquinas Campus, Ballarat

Duration: One day per week from February to October, 2015

This course has fourteen units, totalling approximately 500 hours of study, and comprises face-to-face study days, a 100 hour school placement, and between-session trialling and assessment tasks.

Units studied include:
- Support the development of literacy and numeracy skills
- Support the development of numeracy skills
- Support students with additional needs in the classroom
- Provide support to students with autism spectrum disorder
- Facilitate learning for students with disabilities

We also offer a Pathway into the Bachelor of Education (Primary or Early Childhood) in which you would complete two units from the Bachelor concurrently with the Certificate.

If you are interested in finding out more about this course or the Pathway into the Bachelor, please ring Jacqui Ryan on 9953 3447, or see the ACU website http://www.acu.edu.au/courses/453356. To apply, please contact ACU on 03 9953 3321 or via email acucom.melbourne@acu.edu.au.